

Our Association is . . .

an organization of licensed auctioneers. With the support of its membership, the association works to promote the auction profession. We are governed by an annually-elected president, vice-president, secretary/treasurer, and nine board members. These board members serve in revolving three year terms. All past officers and directors comprise an advisory committee.

Membership Benefits

- Multiple educational seminars on topics pertinent to auctioneering, marketing, appraising, government regulations, small business growth & management, and cultural enrichment
- Complimentary subscription to The Minnesota Auctioneer, the official membership publication with news and informative articles from around the state
- Combined legislative influence as membership grows
- Policing body to maintain ethical practice and thus reputation for the industry as a whole in our state
- Mentoring and problem solving with other auctioneers
- Voting privileges in annual business meeting
- Permission to use the MSAA logo in advertising and compete in marketing competitions
- Updated directory of all MSAA members

No matter what you sell, you'll find insightful seminars and rich relationships to help you sell it better!

Any auctioneer with a current license is welcome to join. New applicants become members by submitting a completed membership application (below) with proper payment. Membership is from January 1 to December 31. Members who join after October 1 will receive membership for the remainder of the current year and the entire following year.

All members are expected to act in a professional manner and conduct an ethical business. Members must pledge to be faithful to all buyers and sellers. Members are also expected to show loyalty to the organization by actively participating in state activities and events.
